SPIRITUAL PILGRIMAGE – THE WAY OF VIRTUE

“This is the will of God, that you be holy.” 1 Thessalonians 4:3

What is virtue? It is “a habitual and firm disposition to do good.” (CCC 1833)

Eight hundred years ago a young Italian man searching for meaning in his life went into a dilapidated old church and heard the voice of God speak to him: “Rebuild my Church. As you can see, it is in ruins.” If you listen carefully, I believe we will hear the same voice saying the same thing today.

The young man was Francis of Assisi. His first reaction was to repair and rebuild a number of churches in and around Assisi, but the voice kept calling to him: “Francis, rebuild my Church. As you can see it is in ruins.”

Over the past fifty years, we have spent a lot of time, energy, and money building and restoring the physical facilities of our churches. But the voice of God continues to call us.

Once again God is saying, "Rebuild my Church," and the rebuilding that needs to be done now is of a spiritual nature.

The only way for our lives to genuinely improve is by acquiring virtue. Similarly, it is impossible for a society to genuinely improve unless its members grow in virtue. The renewal that the Church and society so desperately needs is a renewal of virtue. And it is our relationship with Jesus that gives us the strength, the grace, and the wisdom to grow in virtue.

LESSON: To live a life of virtue is to move beyond the restlessness and chaos that agonize the human heart and embrace a life of order and coherence. There is a clear connection between a life of virtue and human flourishing. Virtue leads to better people, better living, better relationships, and a better world. The Eucharist is a divine storehouse filled with every virtue. The more time we spend with Jesus in the Eucharist, the more abundantly we can draw virtue from that storehouse.

VIRTUE OF THE DAY: Generosity: The virtue of generosity mirrors the abundance of God's generosity. Give something away every day. It need not be a material possession or money. Give a compliment, a smile, advice, encouragement. Express your appreciation. Catch someone doing something right. Give everywhere you go to everyone you meet. Live a life of staggering generosity.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION: Jesus, I believe that You are truly present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist. Every day I long for more of You. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot receive You sacramentally at this moment, I invite You to come and dwell in my heart. May this spiritual communion increase my desire for the Eucharist. You are the healer of my soul. The blindness from my eyes, the deafness from my ears, the darkness from my mind, and the hardness from my heart. Fill me with the grace, wisdom, and courage to do Your will in all things. My Lord and my God, draw me close to You, nearer than ever before. AMEN.
